- Implement and monitor an organisation's work health and safety (WHS) policies, procedures and programs in the relevant work area in order to meet legislative requirements.
- Undertake a minor project or a section of a larger project.
- Identify business risks and to apply established risk management processes to a defined area of operations that are within the responsibilities and obligations of the work role.
- Maintain and implement a hazard analysis critical control point (HACCP) based food safety plan.
- Control contamination and spoilage in food or beverages, and to manage food safety using cleaning and sanitation programs.
- Apply mathematical principles to analyse and interpret data relating to the properties and production process for food products, using common units of measurement, formulae and mathematical skills.
- Effectively analyse the workplace in relation to environmentally sustainable work practices, and to implement improvements and monitor their effectiveness.

- Participate in performance improvement processes that involve systematic analysis of performance to identify and propose opportunities for improvement.
- Lead teams and individuals by modelling high standards of conduct to reflect the organisation's standards and values.
- Use leadership to promote team cohesion including motivating, mentoring and coaching.
- Collect, organise, analyse and present information using available systems and sources including identifying research requirements and sources of information, evaluating the quality and reliability of the information, and preparing and producing reports.
- Assess, investigate and make recommendations to optimise the performance of a work process, system or area.
- Use structured process improvement tools to solve process and other problems.
- Managing an organisation that has embarked on competitive systems and practices and who seeks to change/improve the organisation culture and maximise the benefits for a competitive systems and practices strategy.
- Develop, administer and communicate staff rosters including ability to plan rosters according to industrial provisions, operational efficiency requirements, and within wage budgets.
- Collate and maintain workplace records to enable the monitoring and reporting of workplace performance.
- Analyse a process that a team is responsible for and determine methods of mistake proofing it.
- Verify and confirm validation of food safety programs in the context of food safety legislation and client requirements
- identify, evaluate and control food safety hazards for the purposes of validating specific control measures in a food safety program.
